

Friday August 25

10:15 | M “Inner life and active life: how to reconcile them?” | With Yves Oltramare (Switzerland).

Yves Oltramare, 98, a retired banker, will talk to us about reconciling his inner life with his working life, based on his many years of experience. His talk will be based on his book "Tu seras rencontreur d'Homme" (Labor et Fides).

10:15 | 15 “Trust in God can give hope that is stronger than fear of the future” | With Rosy Wendler (Switzerland).

As a former missionary for ‘Youth with a Mission’ and being involved with the international emergency NGO MEDAIR, Rosy Wendler loves accompanying people in getting to know God. Through a reflection on Brother Alois' message for 2023, she will encourage us to walk with God and to live a life full of trust.

10:15 | 10 “Solidarity with all creation” (fifth part of the 2023 message)

In this workshop, Brother Jean proposes a reflection on Matthew 16:15-23 as an extension of his morning meditation, followed by group sharing.

14:15 | 12 European meeting in Ljubljana – Presentation and information meeting.

15:15 | P “The Resilience Process. The cross as a story of mourning and consolation”. | With Katharina Opalka (Germany).

This workshop will explore how we can try to cope with crises in a resilient way through the inspiration of complex stories like that of the Cross, and through our ways of speaking about our experiences of grief and consolation. Katharina Opalka will present her post-doctoral research in Protestant theology at the University of Bonn (Germany) on resilience.

15:15 | 15 “How do you get through crises with Jesus in the boat?” | With Patricia Gomez (Peru) and Tamsin Blake (Switzerland).

Patricia Gomez and Tamsin Blake work for the international emergency NGO MEDAIR and have been involved in many serious humanitarian crises, working with the most vulnerable people. They will give concrete examples of how faith helps them to cope with chaotic and uncertain situations.

15:15 | 10 Gender violence. | With Jordi Elgström (Spain).

Jordi Elgström is a Catalan psychologist who works with men who use violence. His testimony will be used to tackle this difficult subject.

15:15 “Kyrie of Kyiv” - Piano Recital in Solidarity with Ukraine.

Peter Bannister (United Kingdom / France) will present works by Schubert, Liszt, Mompou and the Ukrainian composer Valentin Silvestrov (b. 1937), currently exiled in Berlin since March 2022. (Limited places, tickets at La Morada).

15:15 “With almost nothing”, collage using scrap materials. | With a brother from Taizé. - (Limited places, list at La Morada).

15:15 “Exploring non violent Communication Through Theatrical Games” | With Hanna Żylicz (Poland). - (Limited places, list at La Morada).

19h40 | 12 Prayer, common life and service for others: the experience of volunteers in Taizé (for those interested in a longer stay in Taizé).

Information

- If you don't have a sharing group, or no longer have one, go to tent 2 at 17:30.
- Today at 19:40, meeting for those who wish to stay after Sunday: for young women, at El Abiodh; for young men, at La Morada.
- Jean-Luc Delpuech, who gave a workshop on Monday, will present the experience of the European College of Cluny today at 14:00, in room 12.
- Tonight at 20:30 the evening prayer will be followed by prayer around the cross